New Business:

1. Resolution 2019-03 Real Estate Tax Settlements- Mr. Smith discussed with the Board the resolution as a request to the County Auditor for advances on the collection of real estate tax settlements for the second half of this year's collections Mr. Welch moved to adopt Res. 2019-03. Mr. Flaherty second. Roll Call: Mrs. Heichel, yes; Mr. Flaherty, yes; Mr. Welch, yes.

Director/Staff Updates:

Lt. Lephart discussed getting a grip on several car break ins, but some thieves are braising enough to still break into cars parked at Hoover. Surrounding areas are also affected.

Mrs. Bowman discussed the seniors loving the "Mystery Lunches" planned. This time was Buckeye Chili. Now planning an ice cream social with banana splits in honor of "Old Americans Month".

Mr. Flaherty discussed the time change for ending the Car Show at the Senior Center at 1:30pm. The Board and Mrs. Bowman were all in agreement.

Mrs. Harter discussed the beautiful weather for Memorial Day and the return of trusted volunteers every year were there to help. Also, thanked Chief Miller for the firefighters that had a run and came back to help with the grilling. What a wonderful speech Mrs. Robeson made about the Vietnam War and Mr. Estep being a Vietnam veteran, who passed this March. A special thank you to Mr. Wiebell for filling in and the reading of the Blendon veteran's loss in combat. A thank you from the Phelps family for honoring them and they presented us with their family bible. We plan to encase it, as we did with the musket.

Mr. Smith discussed getting the "lay of the land" and adjusting to his position as Fiscal Officer. Also, he is working on the tax budget due in July and is enjoying getting settled.

Fire Chief Miller discussed the three monumental storms to hit the Dayton area at night and reminded everyone how important weather radios and dell alerts are along with stocking water and food in preparation for spring storms.
